

Junior Woman's Club Initiates New Members

NEW MEMBERS INDOCTRINATED IN FEDERATED CLUB LIFE

Objectives of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club and how they are attained were explained to a group of new members at a luncheon Saturday at the Indian Village. "Universal Harmony," theme chosen by the new president, Mrs. David Wade, dominated the event. Winner of the Youth Award, Robert Wallace, who was sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club, was the featured speaker. In the picture, at left, Mrs. Wade president asks Mrs. Douglas Hedde, membership chairman, "What's New" and she points over her shoulder to new members from left, Mmes. Walter Hunter,

Kenneth Jett, Roland Davenport, LeRoy Lindsey, Richard Cramoline and William Ritchie. At the right, the president chats with another group of new members, from left, Mmes. Archie Kozak, James Burger, Ronald Large, Lowell Costello and M. Wayne Lynch. New members, not pictured, are Mmes. Larry Smith, Lee Davis, Sarkie Taitian, Charles Balderana, D. R. Smart, and John Arnold. The Junior Woman's Club is affiliated with Marina District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, junior membership. (Press-Herald Photos)

St. James Women's Council To Present

"Galerie of Fashion" Benefit Nov. 3

St. James Parish Council of Women will present its annual fashion show "Galerie of Fashion," Nov. 3, in the Crystal Room of the Hacienda International Hotel, 525 Sepulveda Blvd., in El Segundo.

The 7 p.m. social hour will precede the fashions, which will be paraded at 8 p.m. This is the major fund-raising event for the council and all proceeds will go to the church.

The room in which the show will take place will be transformed into an art gallery with local artists displaying. The models will begin their parade by posing in a gilded frame at the top of the ramp. Program covers provided by Air France, depict a French countryside where an art show is in progress. Table decorations will feature feather flowers in rainbow colors.

Men's and women's fashions will be shown as well as a fur collection. Door prizes will be awarded.

Mrs. D. G. Gansemer of Torrance is general chairman. Mrs. R. R. Crandall, also of Torrance is co-chairman.

Other committee members are Mmes. E. R. Gebel, ways and means, J. Ferguson, advertising; J. A. Burschinger, tickets; T. G. Vaughn, door prizes; R. L. Wassmuth, decorations; R. L. Trano, fashions and models.

Others are Mmes. A. L. LeGrand, hostesses; M. R. Riley, publicity; V. G. St. Clair, patrons; S. A. Rizzo, programs; L. S. Jordan, main prize; D. S. Ziemke, table favors; S. Brennan, wardrobe; N. Schumacher, art; N. Hunting, commentator.

Models are Mmes. D. P.

Bean, R. Burton, R. N. Hueth, G. L. Knox, P. D. La Marca, G. M. Lujan, R. L. Trano, and Misses Terri Burton, Michelle Ste Marie, Alicia Williams, Diana Clark and Deanna Trano. Men modeling are David Dupont, James Morgan, J. A. Hurr, R. E. Smith and J. A. Burschinger.

Tickets, which include admission, dessert and coffee, may be obtained at the St. James Parish Rectory or at the door on the evening of the show, although advance purchase is recommended as a sell-out is anticipated.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

OCTOBER 23, 1966

B-1

Engagement

SHARON ELLIOTT

Elliott - Ritter

At a family dinner party on Sunday Oct. 16 given by Mr. and Mrs. Marvin D. Elliott, 24725 Senator Ave., Harbor City, the engagement of their daughter, Sharon Kay, to Frederick S. Ritter was announced.

The future bride is a 1965 graduate of Narbonne High School and attends Harbor College.

Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Ritter of Pittsburgh, Pa., is a student at Long Beach State College.

The wedding will be solemnized on Saturday, Dec. 17 at the Wayfarers Chapel in Portuguese Bend.

A HALLOWEEN GALA

Torrance Welcome Wagon Club took advantage of the approaching holiday to stage a festive party last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ganske, 2450 236th Pl. An evening of traditional Halloween games with prizes, food and dancing made up the festivities for the more than 50 guests attending. Partygoers, having fun on arrival, are left, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Geffner in oriental costumes doing an oriental bow; seated, Mrs. Donald Sturt in a "weirdo" costume holding a Frankenstein doll, and Mrs. Charles Mead, Jr., in a "Roaring 20s" attire. (Press-Herald Photo)

Garden Club Luncheon Set For Oct. 26

Los Angeles Bay Harbor District of California Garden Clubs, Inc. under the direction of Mrs. Jack Gates of the Silver Spur Garden Club will hold a "Shine on Harvest Moon" Luncheon, Wednesday, Oct. 26 at the home of Assistant Director, Mrs. Carroll Stough of the Long Beach Garden Club, 241 Bennett Ave., Long Beach.

Gardeners from 10 clubs in the South Bay and Long Beach areas will be admiring the Placement Flower Show at the luncheon. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Virginia Baldwin, who will speak on the "Los Angeles Beautiful" program.

Members and friends are invited. Mrs. Thomas Stuephel of the Riviera Garden Club may be contacted for further information.

HOLIDAY BAZAAR FOR MISSIONS

Mission Circle 1 of Court St. Catherine CDA will stage its annual bazaar on Wednesday, Oct. 26, in the patio at the Shaughnessy home, 1404 Cota Ave. Open to the public from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m., gift items, made during the year as well as Christmas cards and Yuletide gifts, will be on sale. Mmes. Regina Cunningham and Emma Olsen, from left, admire a quilt, as Miss Felice Shaughnessy has a sale apron tied on by Mrs. Louie Derouin, grant regent. Proceeds will be used for the missions in Africa and Mexico as well as local charities. (Press-Herald Photo)